

Unit 1 Topic 1.2 Page 20
Activity: Research
Reporting online bullying

Learning objective

At the end of this activity you should be able to:

- assess young people's knowledge of ways of reporting online bullying.

Working in small groups, visit the website below.

1. Make notes on the ways in which online bullying can be reported on different social media.
2. Design some interview questions to ask young people if they are aware of what they should report and how they report such bullying.
3. Interview five students who are not in your Criminology class.
4. From your interviews, write a summary of your findings about young people's knowledge of online bullying and how to report it. Share your main findings with the rest of the class.
