2.

3.

Explaining class differences (page 17)

1. What percentage of Britain's children attend private schools?
2. What percentage of entrants to Oxford and Cambridge come from private schools?
3. Define and give an example of:
  - a. Internal factors
  - b. External factors

Cultural deprivation (pages 17-21)

According to cultural deprivation theorists, why do many working-class children underachieve in education? (page 17)

Using the purple headings on pages 18-20, complete the following table on the three main aspects of cultural deprivation. If you need more space, continue on a separate sheet of paper.

Key concepts and studies	How this affects educational achievement
Language e.g. Bernstein; restricted code
Parents' education
Working-class subculture

2.

3.

Activity: Discussion A child's background can disadvantage their education (page 21)

When you have completed your discussion for this activity:

1. Write a paragraph summarising your research and class discussion.

2. Do you agree with the cultural deprivation explanation of class differences in achievement? Give your reasons.

Material deprivation (pages 21-23)

1. Define material deprivation.
2. Briefly explain in your own words how the following material factors may lead to underachievement. Note any relevant studies.
  - a. Housing
  - b. Diet and health
  - c. Financial support and the cost of education
  - d. Fear of debt

The self-fulfilling prophecy (pages 28-29)

Complete the stages of the self-fulfilling prophecy in the diagram below.

Briefly summarise Rosenthal and Jacobson's study.

Analysis and evaluation (page 28)

Write your answer here.

Streaming (pages 29-30)

1. Define streaming.
2. Which pupils are most likely to be placed in lower streams?
3. Why is it hard for pupils to move to a higher stream?
4. What evidence does Douglas give to show that streaming affects educational achievement?

Streaming and the A-to-C economy (page 29)

1. Gillborn and Youdell looked at how teachers use stereotypes to label pupils. They also linked labelling to the league tables. What do league tables show?
2. Explain what Gillborn and Youdell mean by the A-to-C economy.

Educational triage (page 29)

1. Define triage.
2. Which three 'types' do schools categorise pupils into?

Pupil subcultures (pages 30-32)

Define the following terms:

1. Differentiation
2. Polarisation
3. Pro-school subculture

The variety of pupil responses (page 31)

Define the following concepts used by Woods:

1. Ingratiation
2. Ritualism
3. Retreatism
4. Rebellion

Application (page 32)

Write your answer here.

State two criticisms of labelling theory (page 32).

- 1.
- 2.

Habitus (page 32)

1. Define habitus.
2. Why does the school's habitus disadvantage working-class pupils?

Symbolic capital and symbolic violence (page 32)

1. Define the following:
  - a. Symbolic capital
  - b. Symbolic violence
2. According to Archer, how do working-class pupils view education?

'Nike' identities (page 33)

1. Why do some working-class pupils need to create a 'Nike' identity?
2. How does this create conflict with the school?
3. According to Archer, why do some working-class pupils reject the idea of higher education?

Activity: Webquest The habitus of higher education (page 33)

Write your summary here.

Working-class identity and educational success (pages 33-34)

Using Callum from Ingram's study as an example (page 34), describe how there may be conflict between working class habitus and middle-class habitus.

Class identity and self-exclusion (page 34)

1. According to Evans, which universities are working-class pupils more likely to go to?
2. According to the studies discussed, what choice do working-class pupils have to make if they wish to achieve in education?

Activity: Discussion The relationship between internal and external factors (page 34)

Note one example of compensatory education.

Give three criticisms of cultural deprivation theory.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Material deprivation and class (page 40)

1. Define material deprivation.

2. Give four reasons why minority ethnic group pupils are more likely to suffer material deprivation linked to housing and low income.

Analysis and evaluation (page 40)

Write your answers here.

Rank the ethnic groups in order of the likelihood of receiving free school meals, with the group most likely to receive them at the top.

Does class override ethnicity? (page 40)

What evidence is there that ethnicity may sometimes be more important than class in pupils' achievement?

Racism in wider society (page 41)

How does racism lead to social exclusion in the following areas?

1. In housing
2. In employment

How does Gillborn and Mirza's study challenge cultural deprivation theory?

Using the purple headings on pages 41-43, complete the table on the three internal factors and their effect on the educational achievement of minority ethnic groups. If you need more space, continue on a separate sheet of paper.

Two views of girls' achievement (page 55)

1. How do liberal feminists see gender differences in educational achievement?
2. State four ways in which radical feminists say school remains patriarchal.
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.
  - d.

Identity, class and girls' achievement (pages 55-56)

Define 'symbolic capital' and explain how it affects the educational achievement of working-class girls.

1. Briefly explain how the following strategies used by working-class girls negatively affected their education:
  - a. Hyper-heterosexual feminine identities
  - b. Boyfriends
  - c. Being 'loud'

2. What is the working-class girls' dilemma and how did some of them cope with it?

'Successful' working-class girls (page 56)

1. Explain why working-class girls who are successful are more likely to choose a university nearer home.
2. How might this affect their future careers?

Boys and achievement (pages 57-59)

---

Summarise the possible effects of the following factors on boys' achievement.
(Use the blue headings on pages 57-59.)

1. Boys and literacy
2. Globalisation and the decline of traditional men's jobs
3. Feminisation of education
4. Shortage of male primary school teachers

Are more male teachers really needed? (page 58)

1. Explain the difference between a disciplinarian and a liberal discourse.
2. Why does Read conclude that more male teachers are not needed to improve boys' achievement?

'Laddish' subcultures (page 58)

Why might working-class boys form 'laddish' subcultures?

The moral panic about boys (page 58)

In what ways may the moral panic about boys have led to the neglect of girls' needs?

Activity: Discussion Is the education system biased in favour of boys? (page 59)

Write your summary here.

Gender, class and ethnicity (page 59)

1. How much greater is the class gap in achievement than the gender gap at GCSE?
2. Summarise the link between achievement and gender, class and ethnicity.

Gender and subject choice (pages 59-62)

Summarise the gender differences in subject choice for the following:

1. National curriculum options
2. AS and A levels
3. Vocational courses

Summarise the following explanations of gender differences in subject choice.
(Use the blue headings on pages 60-62.)

1. Gender role socialisation
